VACANCIES

CHAIR

If you can motivate others, keep a cool head and balance a variety of views then you would be an ideal chairperson for Barley Lane Primary School Friends' Association. With experience of steering meetings to produce excellent decisions, you'll be equally willing to speak your mind as encouraging others to express their views.

You will use your strong communication skills help to help team of committed adult volunteers who make up a Executive Committee arrive at a good decision that will benefit the families and children of BLPS. Able to work as part of a team, you will also contribute the direction and development of the BLPSFA.

No previous experience of running a Friend's Association is necessary. What's more important is your own skills and experience as well as empathy with our mission and values. We will provide all appropriate training and ongoing support.

TREASURER

Do you have a good head for numbers without losing sight of the big picture? If so, we could use your talents to help transform what BLPSFA can do for the children and families of Barley Lane Primary School.

BLPSFA need a strong team player with excellent judgement, analytical and organisational skills to join our Executive Committee. We'll provide excellent training and support.

You will help manage and monitor the financial activities of the Friends' Association, acting as Treasurer. You will prepare and present financial reports and accounts and while supporting budgets and financial planning process in accordance with legal regulations.

With excellent IT Skills and the ability to summarise and communicate complex financial information, you will also be willing and eligibility to act as a Charity Trustee.

SECRETARY

Are you a natural organiser? Do you know what's happening, not just next week, but next month and year too? If this sounds like you, then we'd love you to consider supporting us as Secretary. A great communicator, team player and problem solver, you'll be as good a listener as you are at taking accurate minutes and reminding us of our rules.

As one of our trustees, you will be responsible, supportive and have our best interest at heart at all times. In return you'll have the satisfaction of knowing that you're helping us prepare and support the team as they facilitate events and activities.

DO YOU HAVE NINJA SKILLS?

This can be contributing specific skills at events, or helping in a more general way. The great thing about being an BLPSFA member is that you can dip in and out as it suits you, with no pressure whatsoever for a regular commitment. In doing this you will be helping in a very important way to maximise the benefits of what we do for our children and the school community.

ARE YOU A MONEY-MAKER EXTRAORDINAIRE?

Are you fizzing with fundraising ideas? Are you bold to ask funders and sponsors for money? Then we need your energy and initiative to help us.

BLPSFA now need a fundraiser to help support our activities and raise money to support activities and improve facilities within the school. Raising extra funds means we can provide a wider range of exciting opportunities to our children and school families.

No specific time commitment is required and the role is flexible enough to fit around you.
